

THE GLOBE AND MAIL

ONTARIO EDITION

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2021 | GLOBEANDMAIL.COM

Travel news

The Gros Morne Inn (grosmoreinn.com) in Newfoundland and Labrador's Gros Morne National Park will open this winter with 15 rooms overlooking Bonne Bay. Featuring an outdoor spa, private sauna, patio for star gazing and a restaurant offering seasonal menus with sustainable seafood, the ecofriendly inn is locally owned by Ian Stone and Rebecca Brushett.

Montreal's Mondial de la bière (mtl.org) returns for its 27th edition from Oct. 7 to 10 celebrating beer at the Gare Windsor de Montreal's Rio Tinto Courtyard. The four-day festival features 30 breweries and more than 100 products to sample, as well as beer-pairing workshops.

Netflix has launched Netflixinyourneighbourhood.ca, a new site to discover the Canadian filming locations of popular series such as The Umbrella Factory, Virgin River, The Queen's Gambit and Anne with an E. From Lunenburg, N.S., to Snug Cove, B.C., fans can search the database by film, TV series or province, get directions to visit destinations that were settings for programming on the streaming service.

Explore Stratford with an audio tour featuring stories from Tom Patterson, founder of the Stratford Festival of Canada. Destination Stratford's walking tour features the voices of actors Jessica B. Hill and Ben Carlson detailing the city's development into a theatre capital. Download the self-guided tour at visitstratford.ca/audiotours.

Plan a trip to Christmas markets in Germany and Austria with G Adventures (gadventures.com), which is releasing a Christmas in Central Europe itinerary this December. The seven-day journey from Vienna to Berlin is part of the Canadian tour operator's vaccinated tours program, requiring all participants to be fully vaccinated.

Auberge Saint-Antoine (saint-antoine.com) will reintroduce its Under the Stars Experience in December. An overnight stay includes aperitif, four-course dinner for two served in a greenhouse, bottle of wine and à la carte breakfast for two. The package is priced from $725 and can be adapted for a family of four.

— WAHEEDA HARRIS

Special to The Globe and Mail

Keep up to date with the weekly Sightseer newsletter. Sign up at fgam.ca/newsletters.